Newsletter Week 4 July 21st-24th

Weekly Recap

Hey there, awesome campers and fabulous grown-ups! Can you believe we've already reached the halfway point of camp? The past week has been a whirlwind of fun with our show, spirit day, and our absolute favorite—Camp Kindness Day! It was such a magical day, and I just loved seeing everyone sprinkle kindness like confetti, not just on that special day, but throughout the whole camp! We also had a super special visit from Mayor Kennedy O'Brien! It was fantastic having him stop by to see all the fun we're having. He loved checking out the different stations and greeting so many campers and counselors with big smiles and handshakes. Looking ahead to week four, we've got so much in store! Get ready for a roaring Dinosaur show, and don't forget to sport your Sayreville colors (blue and gray) for our spirit day! We'll wrap it all up with one of our camp favorites: Winter in July! You never know what surprises are just around the corner! Can't wait to see all your smiling faces! ☀️

Get ready for Wednesday, our super fun spirit day! Show your pride by wearing your Sayreville colors! We can't wait to see everyone rocking their blue and gray! Let's fill the camp with our school spirit! ❤️🌞

Attention all camp superstars signed up for the talent show! It's crucial that you meet with Mr. Ryan on Monday to discuss your act. This will help him finalize the lineup and ensure everyone shines on stage! Don't miss out on this opportunity to showcase your talent!

Reminders

Here are some important reminders for everyone: Please continue to exercise caution in the parking lot. Your dedication to keeping everyone safe during drop-off and pick-up is commendable, and we appreciate your efforts. Don't forget your water bottles and sunscreen—staying hydrated and protected is key! For the safety of all campers and counselors, let's stick to high fives or fist bumps instead of hugs this year.

If you need anything, don't hesitate to reach out to Miss Kevlyn or Mr. Jake; they are ready and eager to assist you!
